

LIFE SCIENCES PA MEMBER BENEFITS

BE CONNECTED

Events – Connect with potential partners, interact with industry thought-leaders, and create business development opportunities at our more than two dozen programs each year.

Increased Visibility – Have your company listed on our Online Membership Directory; enjoy sponsorship and advertising opportunities at significant discounts; add the LSPA Logo to your website.

LinkedIn – Join our member's only LinkedIn group to connect, network, post press releases and job openings, and share ideas with other members of the Life Sciences Pennsylvania community.

Virtual LSPA Community – Join our members-only online community and send messages, exchange contact information and share updates with your peers.

BE HEARD

Advocacy – Through our advocacy work in Harrisburg and Washington, D.C., Life Sciences PA conducts programs, provides leadership and advocates for life science companies across Pennsylvania that are critical to improving patient care, improving health globally, and to the economic growth of our Commonwealth.

You can play a key role in shaping our public policy agenda each year by keeping us informed of the impact state and federal legislation has on your Pennsylvania life sciences company.

Contact Kurt at kimhof@lifesciencespa.org to find out how you can get involved.

BE IN THE KNOW

Communications - Receive weekly Events Outlook emails, quarterly e-newsletters, as well as important and timely notifications to keep you informed and up to date on the very latest industry trends and news.

BE AT THE CENTER

The Center @LSPA - Our new, 8,600 square foot center offers our members a place to host their own networking and educational events; meeting space; Center-wide internet service; quiet, secluded rooms for phone calls, videoconferences or teleconferences; and conference and training rooms – all complimentary to members of Life Sciences Pennsylvania. For more information, call 610-947-6800.

BE ECONOMICAL

Buy smart with S.A.V.E. – Life Sciences Pennsylvania members can take advantage of cost savings through S.A.V.E. (Savings, Access, Value and Ease), our network of preferred service providers. In 2019, our members saved more than $11.7 million utilizing S.A.V.E. discounts. To learn more, contact Lois at lstephens@lifesciencespa.org.
