LIFE SCIENCES PA
MEMBER BENEFITS

BE CONNECTED

Events – Connect with potential partners, interact with industry thought-leaders, and create business development opportunities at our more than two dozen programs each year.

Increased Visibility – Have your company listed on our Online Membership Directory; enjoy sponsorship and advertising opportunities at significant discounts; add the LSPA Logo to your website.

LinkedIn – Join our member's only LinkedIn group to connect, network, post press releases and job openings, and share ideas with other members of the Life Sciences Pennsylvania community.

The Life Sciences Center – Want to bring your team together safely? Host a meeting or event at the center. Contact Emily Boring eboring@lifesciencespa.org for more information.

BE HEARD

Advocacy – Through our advocacy work in Harrisburg and Washington, D.C., Life Sciences PA conducts programs, provides leadership and advocates for life science companies across Pennsylvania that are critical to improving patient care, improving health globally, and to the economic growth of our Commonwealth.

You can play a key role in shaping our public policy agenda each year by keeping us informed of the impact state and federal legislation has on your Pennsylvania life sciences company.

Contact Kurt at kimhof@lifesciencespa.org to find out how you can get involved.

BE IN THE KNOW

Communications - Receive weekly Events Outlook emails, e-newsletters, as well as important and timely notifications to keep you informed and up to date on the very latest industry trends and news.

- Weekly Friday Events Outlook, make sure to whitelist us!
- Social Media Activities - Watch for opportunities to echo messages allowing members to begin associating your company with our membership
- Submit your event to LSPA - Life Sciences Pennsylvania offers members the opportunity to submit your events for editorial consideration and inclusion in the weekly Events Outlook and online event calendar.

BE ECONOMICAL

Buy smart with S.A.V.E. – Life Sciences Pennsylvania members can take advantage of cost savings through S.A.V.E. (Savings, Access, Value and Ease), our network of preferred service providers. In 2020, our members saved more than $12.7 million utilizing S.A.V.E. discounts. To learn more, contact Lois at lstephens@ lifesciencespa.org.
