

Life Sciences PA is proud to announce our official headquarters has moved to 411 Swedeland Road in King of Prussia, PA.

Life Sciences PA completed a headquarters move Wednesday to King of Prussia. Our new address is 411 Swedeland Road, Suite 23-1080, King of Prussia, PA. The Association is proud to call the expanded space our new home.

In the coming weeks, the staff will be busy unpacking and settling into the space. LSPA is thrilled to create programming and activities and will be happy to welcome all members with a grand opening in the coming months.

@LSPA - The Life Sciences Center will remain closed for members as staff prepares to welcome you. Please stay tuned for updates regarding the enhanced amenities available for member use.

The LSPA Team thanks you in advance for your patience in this process, and is eager to welcome you to the new headquarters soon!
